What is something you learned today?

What is one word that describes how you are feeling as we close out the day?

Share your “biggest win” from today?

What went well and why?

What was your most difficult moment today and what did you learn from it?

What didn’t go well and why?

When was a moment you felt happy today?

What was supposed to happen? What did happen? Why was there a difference between what we expected to happen and what did?

What is one piece of advice you would offer the facilitator today?

Did the group work productively together?
Could time pressures have been alleviated by organizing something differently?

Define some of your most challenging moments. What made them so?

Did we have enough time to accomplish all of the tasks to make this project a success?

Define some of your most powerful learning moments. What made them so?

Were the instructions always clear?

What would you say is the most important thing you learned about yourself? And your team?

Now that it’s over, what are your first thoughts about this overall project/activity/day? Are they mostly positive or negative? If positive, what comes to mind specifically? If negative, what comes to mind?

What are some ways you could share what you learned with your family?

What were some of the most interesting discoveries you made while doing this activity? About the challenge? About yourself? About others?

Could you say something positive about each of your group mates?
What could you do today to help you develop better relationships with your peers?

What are some things your peers do that help you learn?

What are some things your peers do that prevent you from learning?

What could you do today to help you develop better relationships with your peers?

Why is it important for us to have positive relationships with each other?

What are some things you do that you worry might prevent others from learning?

What, if anything, have you done or said lately that may have been considered bullying toward other students?

What are some ways in which the adults in the program could help you improve the relationships you have with your peers?

What are some things you do that you believe can help other people learn?

What are some problems you see in the program that you believe the adults should be working to solve? What are some of the solutions to those problems?

What are some things your peers do that help you learn?