What Are They Thinking?

Think about your youth today; how do you want this social justice perspective to show up in your youth?

What are they thinking?

What values do they practice?

What do they feel?

What actions will they take?