

The Leadership Compass Self-Assessment

“When I dare to be powerful—to use my strength in the service of my vision, then it becomes less and less important whether I am afraid.”

—AUDRE LORDE

GOALS

- Give us a vocabulary and a way of thinking about working with each other in our teams
- Deepen our appreciation of everyone's different work styles
- Understand the need for a variety of work styles
- Reflect on our own individual work styles and identify areas for growth
- Understand the negative and positive impacts of each style taken to excess
- Learn the qualities we can develop to become better leaders

BASIC ASSUMPTIONS

- We will categorize ourselves into the work style that fits us best at work →
- No one is purely one style, rather everyone typically has portions of all styles
- For this discussion we will pick one that fits us best at work
- All comments will be directed towards a work style, not a person with the qualities of that direction

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Read each of the statements on the following pages.
2. Place a check mark in the box next to the statements that apply to how you make choices and decisions at work.
3. Each of these statements will apply to all of us some of the time; we are interested in knowing which of these statements represent you most of the time.
4. Count the total number of check marks on each section and place that number in the star shape to the right of the section.
5. The section with the highest number in the star shape is your dominant decision-making style.

Styles Taken to Excess

NORTH—ACTION

- May easily overlook process and comprehensive strategic planning when driven by need to act and decide
 - May get defensive quickly, argue, and try to “out expert” you
 - May lose patience; pushes for decisions before its time; avoids discussion
 - May be autocratic; want things their way; has difficulty being a team member
 - Sees things in terms of black and white; little tolerance for ambiguity
 - May go beyond limits; gets impulsive; disregards practical issues
 - Not heedful of others’ feelings; may be perceived as cold
 - Has trouble relinquishing control; finds it difficult to delegate responsibilities
 - Value-oriented phrase is “If you want something done, do it yourself!”

WEST—ANALYTICAL

- May be bogged down by information or analysis process at the expense of moving forward
- May become stubborn and entrenched in position
- May be indecisive, collect unnecessary data, become mired in details, or suffer from “analysis paralysis”
- May appear cold or withdrawn in respect to others’ working styles
- May have a tendency towards watchfulness or observation
- May remain withdrawn and distant
- May resist emotional pleas and change

EAST—VISION

- May put too much emphasis on vision at the expense of action
- May lose focus on tasks
- Poor follow-through on projects; can develop a reputation for lack of dependability or attention to detail
- Not time-bound; may lose track of time
- Tends to be highly enthusiastic early on, but burns out over the long haul
- Will not work on projects that do not have a comprehensive vision
- Easily frustrated and overwhelmed when outcomes are not in line with vision

SOUTH—EMPATHY

- May lose focus on goals when they believe relationships and/or needs of people are being compromised
- Has trouble saying “No” to requests
- Internalizes difficulty and assumes blame
- Prone to disappointment when relationship is seen as secondary to task
- Has difficulty consulting, confronting, and dealing with anger; may be manipulated by anger
- May over-compromise to avoid conflict
- Immersed in the “now”; loses track of time; may not see long-range view
- May become mired in the process at the expense of accomplishing goals
